DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. This action is responsive to an amendment filed on 03/02/2006. Claims 7-10 are pending. Claims 1-6 and 11 have been cancelled.

Response to Arguments

2. Applicant's arguments mailed on 03/02/2006 have been fully considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection which is deemed appropriate to address all of the needs at this time.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

4. Claims 7-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Parry (U.S. 7,002,703).

Regarding claims 7, 8 and 10, Parry teaches a system including a user operable PDA [i.e., portable radio communication device] (col.9, line 15) and an object device connected to a network, the portable radio communication device comprising:

a transmitter for transmitting a identity tag indicative of the identity of the portable radio communication device) (fig.3; col.9, line 15, col.11, lines 55-67).

the Web server [i.e., object device] comprising a receiver, and a processor (fig.3, item 52). (Note: receiver and processor are inherent in the Web server) in response to the receiver receiving an identity tag transmitted from a portable radio communication device, the processor authorizing the downloading of information via the network to another Web-based device [i.e., remote server or terminal] identified by address information associated with the identity tag (col.11, lines 55-67).

Regarding claim 9, Parry teaches that the portable radio communication device is inherently a passive device (fig.3).
